

Permitted Connections:

The City of Artesia only owns two catch basins and a single lateral that goes from each catch basin and connects directly to a County of Los Angeles catch basin or pipe. The storm drain pipe owned by the city are just these two connecting laterals.

No permitted connections exist and no connections are ever anticipated.